Hello everybody,

How are you? What's new since we were in contact last time?

After working in a kiwifruit packhouse during the autumn, we've been working at Whakapapa ski field (Mt Ruapehu) for 3 months. We started as lift attendant for Cyril and ticket checker for Isabelle, but since the beginning of September Cyril is working for the rental department and Isabelle is a cleaner. That's good to have a change, as these jobs are boring! We should finish in mid-October and then we will travel again in our van.

As you know, since we're in NZ we do a blog in french. The big news is that now we have introduced an english summary in each article so that you can also follow our adventures!

You can connect to <http://isaetcyrilauboutdumonde.bouveret.fr> and you'll find here our articles from the last one to the first one.

Once you're on our blog, you can also register your email address to receive an email every time we add a new article on our blog :

- go to the section "Etre informé par email" (Be informed by email) at the bottom of the right menu
- enter your email in the frame and click "OK"
- you'll receive an email to confirm your subscription : click on "JE VALIDE MON INSCRIPTION" (I confirm my subscription)
- a new internet page will be automatically opened "VALIDATION D'ABONNEMENT A LA NEWSLETTER" (confirmation of newsletter subscription) : you can close it, you're now registered!

The title of the emails will be "Un nouvel article sur le blog isaetcyrilauboutdumonde.over-blog.fr" (A new article on the blog), then you have the title of the article and the beginning of the text. Just below, you can go on our blog by clicking on "Pour lire la suite cliquez ici" (To carry on reading click here).

You can cancel this option when you want if you're not anymore interested : click in the bottom of the email on "Pour ne plus recevoir d'email d'alerte lors de la publication d'un nouvel article sur le blog isaetcyrilauboutdumonde.overblog.fr, cliquez ici" (In order not to receive anymore this email when a new article is published on the blog, click here). A new web page will be automatically opened : tick both lines ("Me désinscrire de la newsletter" + "Me désinscrire des alertes de publication d'articles") and click on "Je souhaite me désinscrire" (I wish to unsubscribe). Another page opens with a warning (Attention = Caution): click on "Je valide ma désinscription" (I confirm my unsubscription). Finally, a last page confirms that you have successfully unsubscribed.

If you want to actively participate on our blog, you can write some comments by clicking on the green link "Ecrire un commentaire" (Write a comment) at the bottom of each article. Then:

- Votre nom = Your name
- Votre email = Your email (optionnal) : we will be the only ones who will see it
- Votre site = Your website (optionnal)
- Se souvenir de ces informations = Remember these informations (we suggest you don't tick)
- Rédigez ici votre commentaire = Write here your comment
- Me prévenir par email du prochain commentaire sur cet article = Receive an email when there will be another comment on this article (we suggest you untick)

To finish, click on "Publier ce commentaire" (Publish this comment).

If you want to understand everything... On the right part, you'll find a menu with:

- "Les dernières nouvelles" (Last news): we summarize what we are doing now and we wish some birthdays and other events to our friends and family in France
- "Quelle heure est-il ?" (What's the time?): time in France and in NZ
- "Classement par catégorie" (Categorizing classification): access to our articles by category
- "Nos photos" (Our pictures) : all the pictures published in our blog by category
- "Sites de nos proches" (Websites of our close relations): links to our brother, sister and friends websites
- "Nous contacter" (Contact us) : our current address, our phone number (with the international prefix) and our email (you just have to click on the @)
- "Etre informé par email" (Be informed by email): explained above
- "Recommander ce blog à un ami" (Recommend this blog to a friend)

We hope you'll have fun on our blog, and look forward to hear from you!

Cyril and Isabelle
